AVAILABLE RESOURCES

There are a variety of government assistance programs, financial companies, non-profit organizations, and utilities willing to step in to help those who may be unemployed or otherwise can't afford to pay bills due to the coronavirus.

211 BROWARD

2-1-1 Broward is the live, 24-hour comprehensive helpline, providing all people with crisis, health and human services support and connecting them to resources in our community. <http://211-broward.org/>

FEDERAL STIMULUS RELIEF:

Federal Stimulus Relief is on the way for workers adversely affected economically by COVID-19 at <https://home.treasury.gov/>

REEMPLOYMENT (UNEMPLOYMENT) INSURANCE:

- Reemployment insurance is available for those who lost their job, were sent home without pay, workers staying home to take care of their families, or those who had to be hospitalized or quarantined. You can apply for reemployment assistance at <https://covid19.floridajobs.org/>

Additional Ways to Apply for Reemployment Assistance

As many Floridians do not have access to a computer at this time, Governor DeSantis has instructed DEO to make paper Reemployment Assistance applications available for Floridians.

- Beginning this week, CareerSource locations across the state will be providing paper applications and assisting Floridians with submitting their Reemployment Assistance applications. Visit www.CareerSourceFlorida.com for information and center locations.
- FedEx is offering free printing and mailing of Reemployment Assistance paper applications at over 100 storefronts across the state.
- Applications can be downloaded at <https://covid19.floridajobs.org/>

- Once the application is complete, individuals should mail them to:

Florida Department of Economic Opportunity
P.O. Box 5350
Tallahassee, FL 32314-5350

Additionally, to make it easier for Floridians to receive Reemployment Assistance, Governor DeSantis waived:

- The waiting week, so individuals can claim their very first week of Reemployment Assistance.
- The work search and work registration requirements so individuals filing for Reemployment Assistance are not required to register in Employ Florida or submit information on a biweekly basis regarding the employers that they contacted each week while the state mitigates the spread of COVID-19.

CARES Act Update

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, also known as the CARES Act, signed into law on March 27, 2020, expands Reemployment Assistance benefits. DEO is working diligently to incorporate the new provisions of the CARES Act to ensure all Floridians who are eligible get their full amount of benefits. DEO will issue additional information about Pandemic Unemployment Assistance and Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Assistance as it becomes available. Benefits will be paid from the date they became eligible under the CARES Act. At this time, individuals who apply for Reemployment Assistance whose employment was negatively impacted as a result of COVID-19 will follow the same application, review and payment process as all applicants for Reemployment Assistance in Florida.

For more information about Reemployment Assistance benefits and how to apply, visit site www.FloridaJobs.org/COVID-19. Any Floridian whose employment has been negatively impacted as a result of COVID-19 to visit www.FloridaJobs.org/COVID-19 and watch a short video on how to apply.

FAMILY SUCCESS ADMINISTRATION DIVISION (FSAD)

Family Success Administration Division (FSAD) offers a number of services to help Broward County residents become economically stable.

- Through our network of four (4) family success centers, we provide emergency assistance for rent, mortgage and utilities.
- The Community Action Agency (CAA) provides employment, tuition and educational assistance through its Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) and energy assistance through the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP).

- We have a financial coach at each of our family success centers to help develop individualized personal goals and foster good financial management practices.
- Through our Housing Options Program (HOP), persons or families who are experiencing chronic homelessness may receive referrals, placement and intensive case management. Our Family Reunification Program provides homeless residents with a one-way ticket to existing support systems outside of Broward County.
